

Savanna G. Baxter

ASSOCIATE

P: 501-377-0412

M: sbaxter@roselawfirm.com

Savanna has a broad practice in the areas of commercial financing, mergers and acquisitions, corporate and securities, and public finance. Her practice involves advising closely-held businesses in the acquisition and sale of businesses, representing clients in various financing transactions, and assisting clients in state blue sky law compliance in connection with private placements of securities. In addition, she has experience in tax-exempt and taxable and public and private municipal finance transactions.

SERVICES

- Commercial Finance
- Corporate and Securities
- Mergers and Acquisitions
- Public Finance and Economic Development
- Real Estate
- State and Local Government

INDUSTRIES

- Financial Institutions
- Manufacturing
- Private Equity/Venture Capital
- Real Estate
- Retail

EDUCATION

University of Arkansas at Little Rock William H. Bowen School of Law, J.D. (magna cum laude)

Associate Editor, University of Arkansas at Little Rock Law Review

Baylor University, Bachelor of Business Administration, Finance

EXPERIENCE

- Borrower in $70,000,000 senior credit facility and $16,300,000 subordinate credit facility in connection with acquisition of women's marketing company
- $30,000,000 taxable industrial development revenue bond issue facilitating the development of industry within the state
- $10,000,000 revenue bond issue facilitating the expansion of university campus
- Newly formed entity in asset acquisition of two manufacturers of hunting and outdoor apparel and accessories, with one acquired out of state court receivership
- $7,445,000 refunding bond issue for local utility
- $7,500,000 capital improvement and refunding bond issue for university
- County economic development corporation in acquisition of multiple tracts totaling $2,900,000 in connection with incentive agreement to new industry, and ground lease of such property to the industry
- County economic development corporation incentive agreements for development of new industry

AFFILIATION

- Arkansas Bar Association
- Arkansas Children's Hospital Auxiliary