

Madeline J. Taylor

ASSOCIATE

P: 501-377-0303

M: mtaylor@roselawfirm.com

Madeline has broad experience in the areas of banking, corporate and securities, commercial financing, and energy. She has experience in representing lenders and borrowers in financing transactions. Additionally, prior to joining Rose Law Firm, Madeline served as in-house corporate counsel in the energy industry. Madeline provides “outside” general counsel services, advising on general corporate matters, such as financing issues, corporate structure and governance, transactional matters, and the drafting and negotiation of all types of commercial contracts, such as confidentiality agreements, equipment lease and purchase agreements, vendor services agreements, and employment and consulting agreements. Madeline’s experience in the energy industry further enables her to provide legal services related to the representation of both energy companies and mineral owners, including the negotiation and drafting of mineral leases, and acquisition and divestiture of mineral rights.

SERVICES

- Bankruptcy and Restructuring
- Commercial Finance
- Corporate and Securities
- Energy
- Natural Resources and Water

INDUSTRIES

- Banking
- Energy
- Financial Institutions

EDUCATION

Washington University School of Law, St. Louis, Missouri
Princeton University, A.B.

EXPERIENCE

- Advised business clients on entity selection and formation, corporate finance, commercial and contract issues, corporate governance and other general business issues
- In-house counsel and corporate secretary to energy company during Chapter 11 reorganization
- Advised financial institutions and borrowers on complex lending transactions and loan workouts; documented lending transactions
- Prepared acquisitions, leasing, financial, and development documents for oil and gas clients
- Prepared natural gas gathering, processing and purchase agreements

AFFILIATION

---

- American Bar Association
- Oklahoma Bar Association