ROSE LAW FIRM

Adam has a broad practice in the areas of private wealth planning, business succession planning, mergers and acquisitions, real estate, and taxation. He represents high net worth individuals in connection with trust and estate matters and develops plans to preserve and protect family wealth and minimize tax burdens. Adam also represents closely held businesses and investors in a wide range of matters, including the formation, acquisition and disposition of business entities and properties. In addition, he counsels clients regarding existing operations, complex federal and state tax planning, and controversies.

Adam has been recognized in the Best Lawyers in America, Chambers and Partners High Net Worth, and Mid-South Super Lawyers. Chambers and Partners recognized his skill in tax, estate planning, and fiduciary matters, and his commitment to his clients, noting "He is very, very responsive" and "He stays on task until the job is done."
