

David Powell

Of Counsel

P: 501-377-0316

M: dpowell@roselawfirm.com

David focuses his practice on construction disputes through litigation, mediation and arbitration as an attorney and dispute resolution appointee as well as defense of design professionals. In addition, he counsels clients in the areas of business litigation, financial institution forms compliance, commercial transactions, real estate, professional liability and commercial arbitration. He is one of the editors of the Arkansas Construction Law Manual. Significant matters successfully handled by Powell include litigation on large hydroelectric projects constructed on the Arkansas River and winning a defense verdict in one of the early lender liability cases in the Eighth Circuit.

EDUCATION

Duke University (J.D., 1969, with honors), Order of the Coif

Davidson College (A.B. cum laude, 1966), Phi Beta Kappa

Former Adjunct Faculty, School of Law, University of Arkansas at Little Rock (Uniform Commercial Code and Real Estate)

HONORS

David is listed in The Best Lawyers in America under commercial litigation, construction law, bet-the-company litigation, franchise law, international arbitration and professional malpractice law. Chambers USA ranks him as a leading practitioner in commercial litigation; and in Mid-South Super Lawyers, he is ranked in business litigation, construction litigation and professional liability defense.

AFFILIATIONS

- American Arbitration Association, Panel of Arbitrators
- International Association of Defense Counsel
- Arkansas Bar Foundation, Fellow
- Defense Research Institute, Fellow